William Belcher, 15 years old, confessed when arrested to having killed Express Messenger Horger on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western near Scranton, Pa.

The earthquake in Switzerland derailed street cars in Geneva. At Chamoni enormous avalanches rushed down Mount Blanc. The castle of Hohenzollern in Prussia was damaged.

A committee representing the city of Frankfort will confer with Governor-elect J. B. McCreary next week as to the ceremonies and decorations incident to his inauguration on December 12.

A dispatch from Cynthiana says a workman fell nine stories in a warehouse and was only slightly injured. As there is not a warehouse in Cynthiana over four stories high the workman fell upward, and this may account for his not being seriously injured.—Carlisle Mercury.

George Glazebrook sold recently to T. Grover, of Meridian, Miss., a family horse for $200. Mr. Glazebrook also sold to Walston, O'Daniel and Co., twenty-one head of fat pigs and to Bricken and Merkleys and five kittens. He received 25 cents each for the cats, but no charge for the kittens.—Shannon Enterprise.

Bedford, Ind., Nov. 18.—Friends of Hiram Hill, a 14-year-old boy of this city, will try to get him a Carnegie medal or some other recognition of bravery for a stunt which he pulled off last night in an engagement with a skunk in the henhouse of the boy's grandfather. Hill had gone to the home of his grandfather to spend the night, and about 8 o'clock the family was attracted to the henhouse by suspicious sounds. Rushing out Hiram broke all records by catching the animal by the tail and beating it.

to death with a club. When things began to happen his aunt, who was with him, ran for dear life. The boy, who bravely stood his ground, was almost strangled to death from the odor at the end of the contest.

The ballot boxes for Hogwallow and vicinity being in use at present for something else the voters voted in the State election by holding up their hands. When the count was over it was at once seen that McCreary would be elected by an overwhelming majority, everybody voting for him except the postmaster, who had a reasonable excuse.—Hogwallow Kentuckian.

Before the election the Republican State officials were quite prompt in paying the salaries of the county teachers, but now that they have been utterly repudiated, they are not so solicitous. Saturday was the day appointed by law for the payment of teachers, but Supt. Lanter was unable to pay them as the State Treasurer had not sent the money.—Winches' r Democrat.

Brand Whitlock, who was elected mayor of Toledo for the fourth time November 7, filed with the Board of Elections today a certified statement that he did not spend a single cent for expenses during the campaign just ended.

W. E. Ries, socialist candidate for mayor declared that he spent $1,100 expounding the cause of socialism, but had no personal expenses. The Kimple corrupt practice law, passed by the Ohio legislature, compels all candidates to file an itemized account of campaign expenses within ten days after election.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 18.—Had an one of several young Democrats living in the Third Railroad Commissioner's district yielded to the urgent pleas of Judge Jere Sullivan of Richmond that young man would now be Railroad Commissioner instead of Green Garrett, who was elected. The district, according to those who figured up the result in the various counties composing the district, went Democratic by a thousand majority and while the official figures have not been compiled it is believed here to be certain that the district actually was carried by the Democrats.

New York, Nov. 17.—Absolute cessation so far as possible of the activities of 150,000,000 English speaking people throughout the world for five minutes, for silent prayer and contemplation is a suggestion which Senator Root, of New York, has made for the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of peace among the English speaking peoples.

The suggestion came out tonight in connection with the appointment by Mayor Gaynor of a committee of one hundred to have charge of the celebration of the centennial.

The date suggested is February 17, 1915, the date of the ratification by the American and British Governments of the treaty of Ghent.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 18.—The police of Frankfort have been requested to keep a special lookout at the Governor's mansion as a matter of precaution against any attempt that might be made to set fire to the famous old structure. A discharged employe of the Governor is suspected of poisoning all the chickens that the Governor had, and there is thought to be some danger that further efforts at revenge might be made by this person.

The evidence to connect him with the poisoning of the chickens is not as yet sufficient to justify the issuance of a warrant, but the police have been instructed by the chief to arrest the man if he is seen on the premises of the Governor at any time, day or night.

The police say that a man who would poison chickens for revenge might attempt something worse, and they are guarding the mansion every night. Gov. Willson does not anticipate further effort at revenge for a fancied wrong, but he does not want to take any chances on the history of old mansion being damaged in any way.

Governor Willson was reluctant to put the matter in the hands of the police, as he did not want any publicity about the affair, but finally was persuaded that it was best to have the police advised as to the situation.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

NEWS FROM COUNTIES JUST ACROSS THE RIVER IN WEST VIRGINIA.

S. A. Greene, aged 55 years, a driver of a nitroglycerine wagon for the Marietta Torpedo company, was blown to death, two horses were killed, a nitroglycerine factory was blown into small fragments and an explosion of 1,200 quarts of nitroglycerine occurred at the factory at Rinehart, near Clarksburg, Tuesday morning, Nov. 7. The explosion was terrific and it was felt for miles.

Green was engaged in loading his wagon with nitroglycerine to drive into the Weston gas field, when he dropped one of the cans at the factory causing the explosion. Men, horses wagon and factory all went up together, and there is scarcely a particle of the factory to be found. A search is being made for pieces of the man's body but there is little hope of recovering an considerable portion of his remains. The factory building was a two-story frame structure thirty by forty feet in dimensions. Where it stood there is only a big, deep hole in the ground, and the earth is torn up a considerable distance.

Bluefield, W. Va., Nov. 18.—Thirty men, all of whom are believed to be dead, are entombed in the Bottom Creek mine of the Bottom Creek Coal and Coke Company at Vivian, W. Va., as a result of an explosion caused by coal dust today.

Six other men, who were in the mine at the time of the explosion, were brought out alive.

It is declared by the men rescued that the blunder of a miner caused the explosion.

They say his unprotected light set off coal dust.

When the explosion occurred 36 men were at work. Five of them were engineers connected with the Crozier Land Association, which leases the coal to the Bottom Creek Company.

Immediately after the explosion rescue parties went to work and succeeded in rescuing alive Alexander Williams, an engineer, and five other men.

Williams' companion engineers, all of whom resided at Elkhorn, W. Va., were not found. They were W. H. Henderson, H. T. Williams, Ed. Hervey and John Brewer.

Faint rappings have been heard in the inside, and it is possible that a few of the entombed may be saved.

These apparent sufferings have spurred the rescuing parties to their greatest effort.

State Dist. Mine Inspector Nicholson hurried to Vivian and took charge of the rescue work.

The Bottom Creek mine was considered to be safe, as it was equipped with a steam jet system for dampening the workings.

A sixteen-foot fan was used for ventilating and clay tamping utilized for chocking.

Several of the miners engaged in a desperate fight to reach safety," said a survivor tonight. "They ran over the bodies of the men who already had been overcome by the fumes."

"I managed to escape through an old passageway. With a few exceptions all the other men fell victims of heat and gas before they reached this passage."

Many sufferers from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Except that it is liquid, it is in all respects like the healing, helpful, pain-allaying Cream Balm that the public has been familiar with for years. No cocaine, no other dangerous drug in it. The soothing spray is a remedy that relieves at once. All druggists 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., New York.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Death being abroad in our land is evidenced by the absence of a smiling face, by the sadness expressed on other faces, by a vacant seat and by the noiseless hush when the name Ethel Thompson is called without that kind and lady-like response which we have so often heard in former days.

We, the Sunday school and Public school of Cordell, Ky., wish to commemorate the name Ethel Thompson in honor and respect to her as being one of the choicest flowers of our community as well as in our schools; she possessed habits of kindness, modesty, politeness and every thing which had a tendency to elevate and develop into a perfect and generous womanhood.

Ethel was in her primitive years, thirteen pleasant summers sealed her destiny, which was brought about by that fatal accident, causing distress, sadness and a pallor upon many faces, though we realize judging from her walks and the fruits of her life, also considering her last and long remembered words which she uttered after kissing Charlie and father a last good bye, "Don't grieve after me I'm just going over home." Then we believe that Ethel is anchored safe at home beyond the reach of accidents, or any thing that would have an affinity to mar the happiness of a seraph sainted little girl.

Her kind and genial disposition was such that she had become the favorite of her father and mother, sisters and brothers, relatives, friends and class mates, and all who made acquaintance with her knew her only to love her.

God himself is love, and she being so affectionate, kind and true, readily convinces us beyond any doubt whatever, that the death of Ethel the pure, noble, good and true is only the commencement of a higher and a grander life; it is like the morning star, that rising never to set, melts away into the purer light of that heavenly paradise.

Father and mother, sisters and brothers, relatives and class-mates mourn not for,

Peaceful will be her silent slumbers.

Peaceful will be her grave so low.

Thou no more will join our number, Thou no more will trouble or sorrow know.

Be it resolved by the Sunday school and public school that these items of respect be put in the minutes of the Sunday school, a copy sent to the parents of the deceased and a copy be published in the Big Sandy News.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
